THANKSGIVING FOR PEACE.

PROCLAMATION OF THE PRESIDENT.
The 7th of December Appointed as a Day of National Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The following proclamation has been issued:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, during the year, which is now coming to an end, to relieve our beloved country from the scourge of civil war, and to permit us to secure the blessings of peace, unity and harmony, with a great enlargement of civil liberty; and

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has also during the year graciously averted from us the calamities of foreign war, pestilence and famine, while our granaries are full of the fruits of an abundant season; and

Whereas, Righteousness exalteth a nation while sin is a reproach to any people:

Now, therefore, I, ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to the people thereof, that they do set apart and observe the First Thursday of December, as a day of National Thanksgiving to the Creator of the Universe for these deliverances and blessings.

And I do further recommend that on that occasion the whole people make confession of our National sins against His infinite goodness, and with one heart and one mind implore the Divine guidance in the ways of national virtue and holiness. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twenty eighth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty five, and the Independence of the United States the nineteenth.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Cholera in Madrid.

The news from Madrid is of the most deplorable character. The London Gazette says the number of deaths are over five hundred per day, and as the population is under half a million, this is a mortality more than fifteen times that of London at the present time. The consequence is, that the population are leaving the capital in thousands;

so violent is the stampede that passengers leave the trains without taking their fear that they may be left behind, as been found necessary to place the railway stations in order to order. The cholera had made ages in the convents, and this is rising, for the nuns who die are buried in the buildings, after having died in the chapels for thirty six deaths in Paris were 200 per day.

THE ADAMS SENTINEL
GETTYSBURG:

Tuesday, November 7, 1865.

The Adams Sentinel.

This No. commences the sixty-sixth year of the "Adams Sentinel." It was established in the fall of 1800 by the father of the present Editor, and fell into the hands of the latter, at the death of his father, in November, 1810. Since that period, (49 years) it has been published by its present Editor; so that he can fairly claim the reputation of being the oldest Editor in the State, or at least, being in the harness longer than any other. Very few can show a record of uninterrupted Editorial life for forty-nine years. One beautiful feature in this time-honored journal is, that it has ever been the advocate of truth and correct political principle. First a Federalist, then a National Republican, then a Whig, then for the Union, its banner never had a stain upon its escutcheon; and this day it floats triumphantly and proudly above us. We look back upon the course of a long Editorial life with satisfaction and pride—feeling the inward consciousness of ever having battled for the right. In the short time, by the course of nature, this journal may be in the hands of its present Editor, it shall ever be, as in the past, the champion of truth and the best interests of our beloved country.

The "Sentinel" is now as well supported as it has ever been. For this we thank our many friends and patrons; and assure them that we shall do our utmost to make our paper a useful, instructive, and pleasant companion at the fire-side. A kind word spoken for the old Journal will be gratefully received.

Lecture.

The Managers of Ever Green Cemetery are engaged in an effort to raise means to pay the debt of the Association and further improve the grounds. In aid of this object, the Rev. J. R. WARNER has consented to deliver his very interesting and popular Lecture on the "BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG" on Tuesday evening, the 28th of November, inst. It is hoped that the citizens of town and country generally will avail themselves of this opportunity of enjoying a rich intellectual treat, and aiding the Association in an enterprise in which all are so deeply interested.

Re-Interment.

Mr. HILKIAN TANEY, son of Mr. John TANEY, near this place, was accidentally killed by the discharge of a brother soldier's gun, at Front Royal, Va., in October of last year. Last week his body was disinterred, and brought home, and re-interred yesterday in Ever Green Cemetery, with the honors of war. He was between 19 and 20 years of age. He was the youngest of four sons of Mr. TANEY, who were in the service of their country. The others all returned unharmed.

On Wednesday last, Mr. SAMUEL WOLFE, the new County Commissioner, entered upon his duties as a member of the Board. Mr. Eppelman retired, after having served three years in the most acceptable manner.

The Board organized by appointing Mr. March as President. J. M. Walter was re-appointed Clerk, E. B. Buchler, Esq., Counsel, and Michael Rupp, Court-house Keeper.

The Board now consists of Messrs. Samuel March, Abraham Krise, of A., and Samuel Wolfe.

Our estimable friend, Prof. LINN, of Newville, is in a terribly bad humor about the Gettysburg and Hanover Branch Railroad, and furnishes an awful account of his adventures. We confess that sometimes the patience of travellers has been severely tried; but we do think that in his six miles an hour travel, walking ahead, and waiting till the train came up, he should have travelled back and brought the truth with him. His story is a very good one, but it lacks one very important ingredient. We need not tell the Professor what that is.

Dr. Farnstock has disposed of his Corner property opposite the Court-house, to Mr. Cannon, for $3,000 cash. James Wilson has sold his house and lot on Chambersburg street, to George Stover, for $1,350 cash.

James J. Wills has sold his farm in Cumberland township, to T. Bender, of Hanover, 219 acres, at $9,000.

Isaac R. Smith has sold his farm, in Highland township, to Daniel N. Knouse—285 acres, at $2,300.

The farm of Thomas Orr, deceased, in Highland township, has been purchased by Frederick Stock-lager—240 acres, at $30 per acre.

George Lady, as Administrator, recently sold the farm of Henry Hershey, deceased, in Highland township, to Charles Starney—154 acres, at $25,374 per acre.

The property of Geo. W. Schriver, dec'd., Baltimore street, has been purchased by Daniel Trimmer, at $2,227.

This region was visited by quite a snow storm, on Sunday last, the first touch of winter for the season.

By a law of the last General Assembly of Maryland, a penalty of from $50 to $100 is imposed upon any one who sells or gives spirituous or fermented liquors to any person on election day. This law applies to Baltimore city and all the counties in the State.

Hon. E. A. Rollins entered upon his duties as Commissioner of Internal Revenue on Wednesday last; as also Mr. D. E. Whitman, who succeeds Judge Rollins as Deputy Commissioner. We notice that the receipts from Internal Revenue on Wednesday amounted to $2,100,635 71.

The Senatorship.

Upon investigation, we learn, the number of illegal votes polled for the Democratic ticket at the late election, was 100, as follows:

Deserters from the Army and Draft.....	50
Deserters to avoid Draft.....	30
Other illegal voters.....	20

We understand that Mr. McCONAUGHEY has determined to contest the election of Mr. DUNCAN on this ground.

Within the last few days, information has been received, we are informed, from the Franklin county troops in Texas, who give a majority for Mr. McCONAUGHEY of probably 40. The vote did not reach the Return Judges in time to be counted—which allows Mr. DUNCAN the certificate. In the contested matter before the Senate, this important item will come in, and will, beyond a doubt, decide the seat to be legally Mr. McCONAUGHEY's.

The National Cemetery.

A heavy force of workmen are still employed at the National Cemetery, and the work in the several departments is being pushed forward with vigor. The foundation of the National Monument is completed, and is of such a substantial nature that it seems it will stand forever.—The foundation is six feet in depth from the level of the ground. It is laid on a footing seven feet wide, of flat stones, six to eight inches thick. Upon this footing, 25 feet square, is reared the structure, diminishing to 23 feet square, at the top, and ten feet high from the bottom line of footing. The walls of the foundation are seven feet thick at the bottom and six at the top. The open space left in the foundation, eleven feet square, is filled to the top of the footing with broken stone. The walls are laid in a good cement mortar. Upon the outer edge of the top of the foundation there is a wash of six inches wide by two inches down on the face. Upon the whole it seems to be most enduring structure.

The various Avenues are all laid out, and the work of macadamization on some parts of them is completed. The trees and shrubs are being planted as fast as the progress of the work will admit. The headstones are all laid in those sections where bodies are buried. The balance of the filling up where no bodies are deposited, will be done in a short time to carry out the full design. The grounds are beginning to present a most handsome appearance, and in the course of a few years will be unsurpassed in beauty by any other spot in the world. This great work has given employment to a great number of laborers, among whom we are pleased to notice a large number of returned soldiers. Probably some fought upon the very ground which they are now helping to beautify.—Star.

The "National Intelligencer" newspaper, of Washington city, entered upon the fifty sixth year of its existence on Tuesday. The Baltimore American is now near the close of the sixty sixth year of its publication.

The "Sentinel" is one year older than the "National Intelligencer"; and not one year less than the American. We are among the "old ones."

Small Change.

Ex Governor Pollock, director of the U. S. Mint of Philadelphia, informs the public that small coin is now plenty, and can be had in any quantities, without delay, in exchange for greenbacks. The denominations are one, two and three cents. The coin will be sent to the purchasers by express at the expense of the United States.

A frightful accident occurred on the morning of Sunday the 29th, on the North River, opposite 20th street, New York.—The boiler of the splendid steamboat St. John, of the People's Albany line, exploded, completely demolishing the State rooms, tearing up the hurricane deck, and flooding the decks with boiling water, causing in a few seconds a sea of scalding water several inches deep. Ten persons were scalded to death, and 17 wounded. There were only 100 persons on board at the time, so that the casualty was not so great as it might have been at other times when the boat was crowded.

A few weeks ago, Jasper Harding, Esq., the collector of Internal Revenue for the 1st district of Pennsylvania, died; and his son, J. Barclay Harding, editor of the Evening Telegraph, of Philadelphia, was appointed in his room. He also died very suddenly on the 20th of October. This is a singular and painful coincidence. The latter was a highly esteemed citizen, as was the former.

I take this opportunity to thank the citizens of Gettysburg and the public generally, for the very liberal patronage extended to the "Excelsior," since its establishment, and hope by strict attention to business, coupled with the advantage of over ten years uninterrupted practice of the art, to merit a continuance of the same.

Oyster Saloon.

Mr. JOHN GREL has opened an Oyster Saloon at his place of business in Chambersburg street. He has everything tastefully arranged; and all who love the delicious bi-valve, and who does not? can have them served up in the best manner, and in fine style. It is the very place for Ladies. Pay him a visit, and you will, beyond a doubt, be encouraged to repeat it.

Miss McCRARY, next door to the Clothing Store of George Arnold, Esq., has just returned from the City with a very fine assortment of articles for Ladies' wear. Everything in her establishment is in the beautiful style characteristic of her neatness and taste; and we think a visit there will well repay the Ladies of town and vicinity.
